

Restaurant Insurance

Running a busy and successful restaurant is hard work and takes good business sense, but if done properly can be very profitable.

To keep profits high you will need a good business plan and select your suppliers and services carefully.

Restaurant Insurance is key in protecting your business and your profits.

Cover can include:

- Buildings & Contents - Cover for the buildings and contents of your restaurant
- Liability to Others including your guests - Includes cover should a guest trip or fall or you are liable for food poisoning
- Loss of Income - Protects your income, wages and rent should you be unable to trade following a claim
- Employers Liability - Compulsory cover required by law if you have employees
- Goods in Transit - Covers your goods whilst in transit, including a trip back from the wholesalers
- Frozen Food - Covers your food stocks should they be spoiled following a freezer breakdown or loss of power
- Loss of Licence - Protects your income should you lose your alcohol licence
